City Appoints Charter Writers

A 15-member charter commission will begin deliberations at 7 p. m. Thursday to write a home-rule charter for Canyon. The charter commission was appointed by the city commission last Thursday after a petition calling for the action was presented.

Members of the commission are Bob Wear, chairman, Gene McGlasson, David Matthis, Luther Hagard, Mrs. Clay Cooper, Mrs. Clyde Warwick, Paul Lindsey, Dr. Crannell Tolliver, O. W. Parker, Hampton Lisle, John A. Williams, Dr. W. J. Wooten Jr., Levi Cole, William B. Davis and Bill Cherry.

The charter commission is charged with writing a charter to be presented to the people of the city for adoption. If the charter is adopted at an election, Canyon will become a home-rule city and will no longer operate as a general law city.

Expected to be included in the new charter are provisions to add two more commissioners to the governing body and to stagger their terms so that a completely new commission will never take office at the same time. Other provisions will probably include a change in the form of government to a commission-manager type.

Present plans of the city are to complete the charter and submit it to a vote of the people in April. The city hopes to include candidates for the two additional commissioners on the ballot so that if the charter election passes, the new commissioners will be able to take office immediately.

Work on changing Canyon's city government began nearly a year ago when the project was adopted by the chamber of commerce. The possibility of changing was mentioned during the community forum conducted by the chamber during the spring.

A chamber committee was appointed to study possible changes, and the committee suggested a change to a home rule charter with a five member commission and a city manager.

The chamber circulated a petition asking the city commission to appoint a charter commission, and the petition was presented to the city Thursday.

Members of the chamber of commerce committee were Bob Wear, chairman, Dr. Crannell Tolliver, Paul Lindsey, O. W. Parker, A. W. Lair and Bill Cherry.

Before the charter is presented for a vote, a copy will be mailed to every eligible voter in the city. It must be approved by a majority of the people voting in order to be adopted.

Among the reasons for asking for a change in city government are the advantages of having a larger, staggered-term commission; a city manager; and being a home rule city. Home rule cities are allowed to decide what powers the city may have, and what form of government will be used.

Cities which are not home rule must abide by the general laws, set up by the legislature to be applied to cities in general, and the general law is subject to change by each legislature. Home rule city charters are changed only by a vote of the people of the city.

The chamber of commerce is planning a Town Hall meeting before the charter election to help explain the new charter to the people of Canyon.

One Part of Our Winter

Our winter has been a series of warm, beautiful days interspersed with cold blustery ones. Over the weekend, the wind blew from the north, water froze up and about an inch of snow fell. Moisture was light.

Building High In January

Thirteen building permits totaling $91,300 were issued during January, one of the biggest totals on record for the month of January. Included were eight residences and two commercial buildings.

The residence total valuation was $79,700 and the commercial valuation was $11,400. Permits issued include:

Swatzell Brothers, Second Avenue and 11th Street, storage shed, Jan. 5.

C. A. Castleman, 2620 Second Avenue, residence, Jan. 6.

Phil Swatzell, 415 Foster Lane, residence, Jan. 6.

J. E. Mickey, 608 6th Street, move in residence, Jan. 9.

T. J. Myers, Eleventh Avenue and 23rd Street, ice cream concessions building, Jan. 12.

Glenn R. Gardner, 2418 Eleventh Avenue, residence, Jan. 13.

F. E. Waller and Troy Jones, 307 23rd Street, sandwich concessions building, Jan. 19.

H. M. Stokes, 2100 Ninth Avenue, residence, Jan. 23.

Henry J. Meyers, 1206 Third Avenue, tool house, Jan. 23.

Ross L. Russell, 2009 First Avenue, remodel residence, Jan. 26.

Donald Byars, 2415 Twelfth Avenue, residence, Jan. 29.

Albert H. Hutton, 1306 13th St., move in residence, Jan. 28.

J. E. Woods, 501 Eleventh Avenue, residence, Jan. 31.

Pancake Supper Slated Tonight

An Aunt Jemima pancake jam-boree will be given tonight from 5:30 to 8 p. m. in Fellowship Hall of the First Methodist Church.

Proceeds from the event, sponsored by the senior Methodist Youth Fellowship, will go to pay the balance of the group's pledges to an Indian mission and the MYF fund.

Prichard Rites Conducted Friday

Funeral services for Cleo Marguerite Prichard, who died suddenly last Wednesday, were held at 2 p. m. Friday in the First Baptist Church.

The Rev. Strauss Atkinson, pastor, officiated, assisted by the Rev. A. J. Pettit, pastor of the Assembly of God Church. Pallbearers were L. H. Crawford, E. A. Oberst Sr., Cristler Crain, Charlie Conatser, Arthur Olson and C. H. Lowe.

Burial was in Dreamland Cemetery under the direction of Warren-LaGrone Funeral Chapel.

Stricken suddenly, Mrs. Prichard, 65, died before the arrival of an ambulance.

She is survived by her husband, Emmett Prichard, two sons, D. A. Prichard and Clifton Prichard, both of Canyon; four daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Ann Olson of Canyon, Mrs. Ruth M. Allison and Mrs. Ara Beth Conatser, both of Dallas, and Mrs. Laura Neil Mainville of Las Vegas, Nev., and 13 grandchildren.

A panel composed of four West Texas State College students, presented the program at Thursday's meeting of Explorer Post 66 at the First Christian Church.

Babe Ruth League Will Meet Tuesday

The Babe Ruth League will meet at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday in the West Texas State College Fieldhouse. Everyone interested in baseball for 13-15 year olds is invited to attend, according to George de Schweinitz, secretary.

Goals for the group in 1959 is to provide late spring and summer recreation in the form of one seven inning ball game four nights a week; to give every 13-15 year old boy a chance to play on a team; and to give the boys who work during the daytime a chance to play baseball.

For the benefit of those who like to know where the rest of the number series are assigned, the numbers from BD 10 to BD 7349 are issued to Potter County. Roberts County has BE 7975 to BE 8449; Sherman County has BE 8450 to BE 9699; Bailey County has BE 9700 to BE 9999.

Car Tag Sales Begin in County

Car tags are on sale again in the two Randall County tax offices — at the courthouse and at the substation in Amarillo.

This year's plates are white with black numbers, the reverse of last year's, and Randall County has been assigned numbers from BD 7350 to BD 9999 and BE 10 to BE 7974.

Tax assessor Bill Money has requested that anyone who asked for numbers between 10 and 100 pick them up as soon as possible in the courthouse. The plates are laid out on a table in the office and are taking up needed space, Money said.

He said that the BE numbers from 10 to about 3000 will be issued from the courthouse here, and the rest will be issued from the substation.

For the benefit of those who like to know where the rest of the number series are assigned, the numbers from BD 10 to BD 7349 are issued to Potter County. Roberts County has BE 7975 to BE 8449; Sherman County has BE 8450 to BE 9699; Bailey County has BE 9700 to BE 9999.

State Candidate Speaks at Banquet

MARSHALL FORMBY

Gubernatorial candidate Marshall Formby of Plainview will speak Friday night at the annual Canyon Chamber of Commerce banquet in the WT cafeteria. Starting time is 8 p. m.

Formby, who has been a highway commissioner for the past six years and chairman of the commission during the past year, announced last fall that he would be a candidate for governor in 1960. He asked that he not be re-appointed to the highway commission when his term expired in January.

Since being off the commission, Formby has made a number of speeches across the state.

The Plainview lawyer has been in both public and private business most of his adult life. He holds a BA degree from Texas Tech, MA degree in Journalism from the University of Texas, and a law degree from Baylor University.

His private business career includes publishing newspapers and owning and operating radio stations in West Texas.

His public career includes county judge of Dickens County, state senator from old District 30 and membership on the highway commission. Formby served four years with the Corps of Engineers during World War II.

Formby is credited with being instrumental in obtaining the highway improvement program now underway in the Panhandle. Many persons believe that little highway work would have been done in this area if Formby had not been on the commission.

Tickets for the banquet are $2.50 each. They may be obtained at the chamber office, from members of the board of directors or at the cafeteria prior to the banquet.

Set 3rd Chamber Music Concert

Third in the series of chamber music concerts, presented by the departments of music at West Texas State College and Amarillo College and the Amarillo Symphony, will be presented here Feb. 16.

The program, featuring four vocal and instrumental ensemble groups, will be given at 7:30 p. m. in the Administration Building auditorium at WT. The public is invited and no admission charge will be made.

Performing will be Mrs. Gladys Antrim of Canyon and Matilda Gaume, assistant professor of music at WT, in a piano-violin duo; the WT Madrigal Singers, directed by Royal Brantley; a brass quartet and a string quartet.

Performing in the brass quartet will be two WT students, Harlan Lamkin of Lubbock and William McNeiland of Amarillo, an instructor at WT, Donald Haddad, and his wife, Dorothy Haddad. Haddad is solo horn player for the Amarillo Symphony, and Mrs. Haddad is first trombone player for the Symphony.

All members of the string quartet are Amarillo Symphony players, including Mrs. Antrim and Mrs. Charlotte Brantley, violins, Mrs. Betty Roller, viola, and Melinda Dalley of Amarillo, cello.

Sale of Nash To End MOD

Final event of the 1959 March of Dimes will be the sale of a 1948 Nash, with proceeds going to the campaign.

The car, donated by the Bruce Blackaby Ford Co., has been described by fund raisers as a "nice and clean four-door with heater and white sidewalls." It is on display in the Ford showroom.

Price for the car began at $200 yesterday, with the price dropping $5 daily until it is sold.

George Blackwell, county chairman, has expressed his appreciation to all who worked in the drive.

Workers "guesstimated" that $1600 will be raised, although donations through the sale of salted peanuts and canisters placed in business houses have not yet been counted.

The coffee day, sponsored by the cafe operators in conjunction with the Lions Club, raised $183.81, and the VFW dance and auction of a natural gas light raised $61. The Mother's March brought in more $300. It was sponsored by the Canyon Jaycees with the Canyon HD Club, the Junior Womens Book Club and the VFW Auxiliary as volunteer helpers.

Cemetery Shows Cinderella Changes

From weeds to paved roads is the success story of Dreamland Cemetery and the non-profit, citizen-owned Dreamland Cemetery Association.

A little over three years ago, Dreamland Cemetery was owned by the county and it was overplanted, under-watered and weedy throughout. The fault did not especially belong to the county, the association which administered the cemetery for the county, nor to the people who worked at the cemetery trying to keep it up.

The cemetery, and its association, had a long history of volunteer work and workers. At times, money would be raised from lot owners and from the families of those buried there. The money would be used to beautify the cemetery through plantings, or fences or gates.

When any major improvement was needed, the commissioners court would pay the bill, and those improvements came fairly seldom. The county put up an annual sum for caretaking. But that sum would not stretch to cover salaries of caretakers and to purchase new machinery and replacements for old machines.

And Dreamland Cemetery had a water shortage. There was not enough water coming from the windmills to water the cemetery, nor enough pressure to push it through the inadequate pipeline system.

And now, what can be found at Dreamland Cemetery?

The first thing to catch the eye is pavement on the main roads. Then you see that the grass has been kept trimmed and weeds kept down. There aren't so many trees fighting each other for space. And on some days, you can see a string of aluminum pipe sprouting water.

Such a transformation in so short a time indicates considerable work and planning on the part of someone. Here's the story of how it came about.

A number of citizens interested in seeing Dreamland Cemetery well kept and beautiful decided after months of study to form a non-profit corporation. The corporation would gain title to the cemetery from the county, and would solicit funds from the families of those buried at the cemetery and from owners of grave spaces.

Money from the solicitations would be used to establish a perpetual care trust fund so that in later years, the cemetery would be self-supporting. In the meantime, the corporation would work to clean up the cemetery and make improvements as they were possible.

Each person who owns a space at Dreamland Cemetery is automatically a member of the corporation, which has the name of Dreamland Cemetery Association, Inc. Officers and a board of directors are elected by the members.

Officers of the association now are Mrs. L. L. Byars, president, Dr. Ford Fronabarger, vice president, R. B. Allen, secretary, Levi Cole, treasurer, and A. W. Lair, counselor. Other members of the board are Mrs. Clyde Warwick, T. A. Black, Mrs. Alfred Bellah and Dr. J. A. Hill.

The board contracted with Warren-LaGrone Funeral Chapel to administer Dreamland Cemetery and (Cont. on Back Page, Section 1)

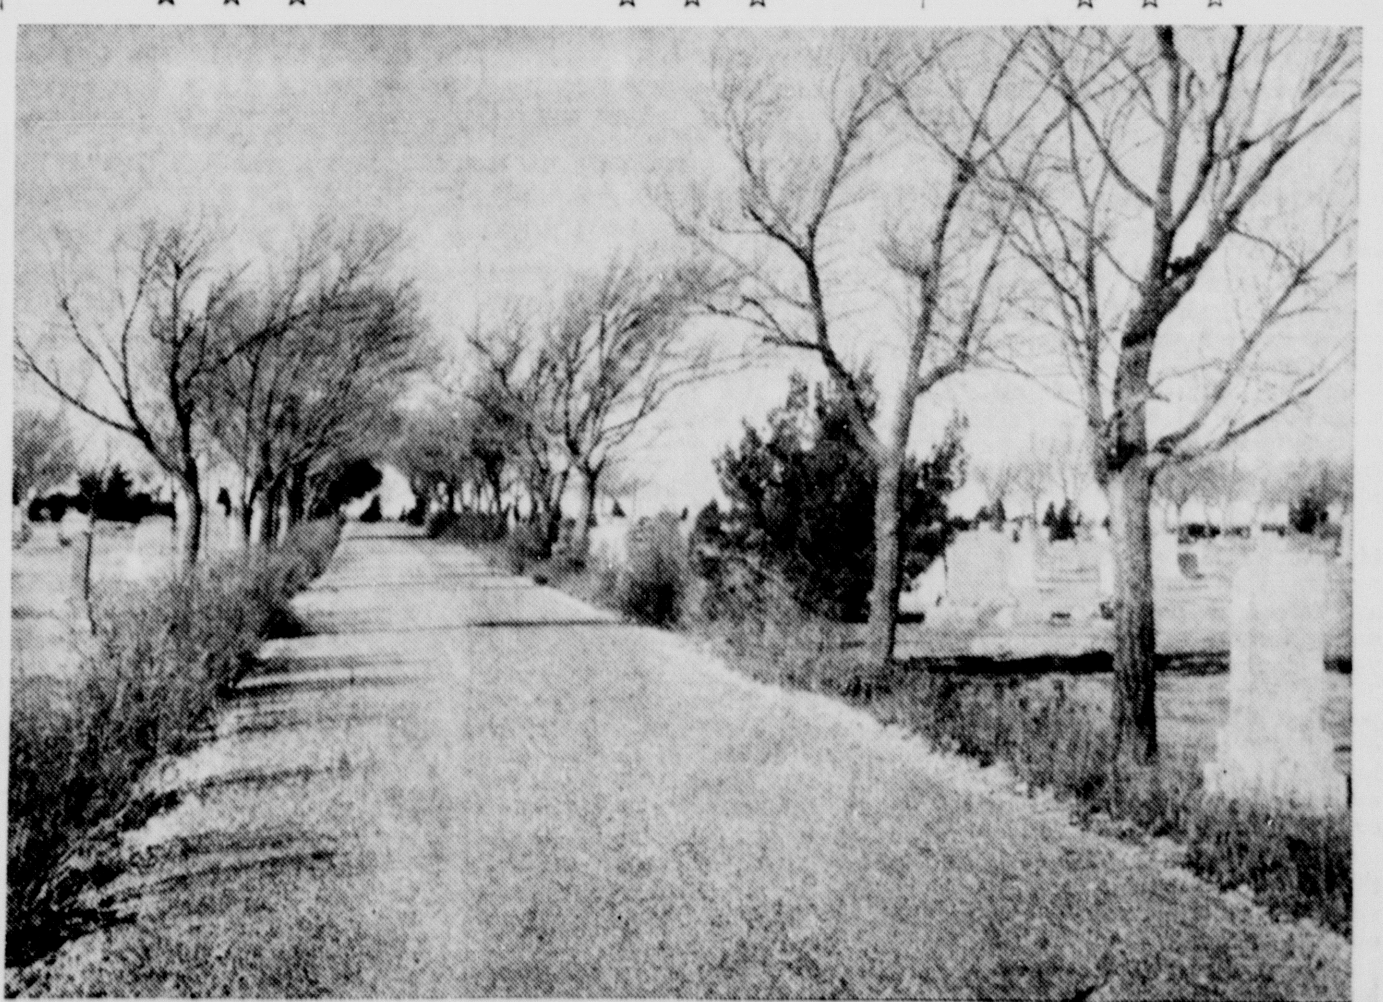

Maize Grower

James Bible was named winner of a DeKalb company contest for having the best grain sorghum yield in Armstrong County. The Bible Brothers field produced 6611.48 pounds per acre.

These scenes show the progress made in Dreamland Cemetery in a short time. The small picture was taken in late August, 1955, and shows how weeds were growing faster than they could be cut down. The large picture was taken recently, and shows the paved road running east to west in the center of the cemetery. Trees have been removed to give others growing room, and weeds and grass have been cut regularly.

The eighth point in the 1959 program of work for the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce is the consolidation of Potter and Randall Counties.

Item:

One of the goals of the Amarillo newspapers for 1959 is the consolidation of Potter and Randall Counties.

Item:

Rep. J. Edgar Wilson, one of Amarillo's representatives in the legislature, was appointed to the committee on counties for this session.

Item:

The 13th point of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce program for 1959 is to "study state government relative to consolidation of counties," a move in opposition to the Amarillo moves.

Question:

What do you propose to do about this? Is it important to you whether your local government unit is kept local or centralized? We oppose it on the grounds that the people enjoy better government when it is kept solidly planted as near to the people as possible. But if you, the people, don't care what happens, we certainly see no need to stew around and breed ulcers.

Groundhog Day

Last year on Groundhog Day, fence posts in the Panhandle cast long shadows, predicting six more weeks of winter. (We use fence posts, because groundhogs are scarce on the plains.)

The prediction came true and then some. The week after Groundhog Day it snowed. Then it got hot and buds began to come on elm trees. The third week after Feb. 2, the expressway was opened to the accompaniment of a snowstorm.

The next week it snowed, and the next, making a total of five weeks of winter after Groundhog Day. The sixth week we had just plain weather, and the seventh week we had rain, sleet and clear skies in the space of an hour or so one afternoon.

The eighth week was a week of fishing weather, and winter had really come to an end. Of course it should have, that was the week of April 6.

So what are we to expect from this Groundhog Day. It was snowing and cloudy Monday morning, and it was just about cold enough to freeze the bark off cedar fence posts. The legend holds that winter is just about over when there are no shadows on Groundhog Day.

We don't believe it would be wise to store your longhandle underwear just yet. March is sure to come, and March is sure to surprise us with something.

What Our Neighbors Say...Scissor Snippings

Ernest Joiner in the Ralls Banner: A pitiful man is the one who worked and saved all his one-dollar dollars so he could retire in 1959, only to find that his hard-earned savings are worth only 50 cents on the dollar. The next most pitiful figure is the dreamy-eyed wage earner who visions himself retiring on his Social Security at 65, and living the rest of his life in ease and in joy.

Social Security is a gigantic lottery in a country that refuses a national lottery system on grounds it's immoral. I live in a state where it's a criminal offense to wager two bucks on a horse's nose in an attempt to win some security from the landlord on Saturday night.

Now take a look at how the biggest gambling racket of all works. For Social Security you are forced to pay 2½% of your entire income as a premium, and your employer must pay another 2½%. For what you are going to get, that's 5% of everything you'll ever make, which is one hell of a lot more than the average man ever spent in the numbers racket or at the race track.

For this you may collect something, and you may not. It is possible to pay all your life and get only $200 to get buried with. If you don't pay, your property will be seized. The money taken in isn't put into a fund, it's spent. In the Social Security kitty is not one thin dime—just a piece of paper which says IOU so many billions of dollars.

On the other hand, you can pay Social Security for a year and hit the jackpot full of benefits. But it all depends on Congress. It makes the rules, and it frequently changes them. It can elect to pay you nothing.

There is no guarantee that when your number comes up there will be any money to pay you off. No man alive can tell you now what you may be, or may not be, entitled to when you're 65. This is SECURITY?

In a crap game you know what the odds are. Your guess is as good as the next guy's at a greyhound race. Your chances are probably 1 in 2 that you can pick the winner of the Rose Bowl, and it won't take 5% of your life savings to retire by betting such odds.

Your Social Security money may be making things cozier for the natives of Zambesia, but if you have any dreams of retiring to a South Seas island at 65 when you hit the big lottery and die happy within earshot of native music and dancing girls, we suggest the best insurance is a good poker game with no limit and the joker wild.

We're Bothered

The taste of water usually makes little difference to us, so long as it's cold and isn't sour with too many salts of one kind or another. And the taste of chlorine in water doesn't bother us too much either, so long as it doesn't cause tears in our eyes.

But Monday morning we got overly-chlorinated water in our coffee pot, and the resulting brew knocked our eyeteeth loose. When chlorine gets into our coffee, we think it's time to gripe.

Is it really necessary for chlorine to be that strong in our city's water?

Good Luck

This Thursday night, a charter commission will begin meeting to write a charter for Canyon so we can become a home rule city. When the charter is done, it will be submitted to the people for approval in an election.

We wish the best of luck to the members of the charter commission, and we hope they will be able to conduct their work efficiently and speedily—and we hope they will come up with a perfect charter that will never need amending.

We hope, further, that the people of Canyon will accept the charter and take the opportunity to become a home rule city. Good luck to the charter commission.

I GIVE YOU
TEXAS
By BOYCE HOUSE

Probably the greatest galaxy of after-dinner speakers ever heard on a single program in Texas was, oddly enough, not in a major city but in Strawn. The year was about 1925 and the occasion was a regional meeting of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

The orators were:
Joe Leopold of Dallas, the Southwestern manager of the United States Chamber of Commerce, a forceful speaker who used some humor — (he told the "hit-me-again-I-can-still-hear-him" story);

Mark McGee, then of Brownwood, later of Fort Worth, an attorney. He served as state adjutant general and as commander of the American Legion of Texas — (droll of voice and a master of the "dead-pan" style, he told the story of a World War I hero who was being honored with a picnic but was so inexperienced as a speaker that his voice was being drowned out by conversation in the audience; whereupon the chairman indignantly shouted, "This boy went through hell for us and we've got to do as much for him!");

P. C. Sanders, mayor of Strawn, who wore a long black (statesman's) coat and a broad-brimmed (Southern planter's) panama and carried a gold-headed cane — (he told of the oil boom days when, he said, people were so tough that little boys were chained to logs to keep them from fighting the bulldogs; also that men had to sleep with their mouths closed to keep thieves from stealing their gold fillings).

The climax of the field day of after-dinner eloquence was provided by Curtis Hancock of Breckenridge. An attorney and former member of the legislature, Hancock had served as chairman of the State Highway Commission. He was fond of saying that he was the best chairman the commission had ever had up to that time; then he would add that he was the first to hold the position.

Amarillo and Mineral Wells were seeking the general convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce for the next year and Hancock arose to nominate a "dark horse." He ridiculed Amarillo where, he said, a man was liable to freeze to death in a snowstorm in July; and Mineral Wells where, he said, the hotel lobbies were filled with invalids; and he demanded, "Who can have a good time, surrounded by all those wheel chairs?"

Then he got to the merits of his own choice for the convention. (He had not yet revealed the city's name.) He pictured it as a place where the visitors' freedom of action would not be hampered by police restrictions and where ample parking space could be found. He closed with, "So, come to the jewel of the Palo Pinto Mountains; come to Metcalf Gap!"

The place was a notch in the hills — nothing more. In a mock resolution, the diners unanimously chose Metcalf Gap.

Mothers of young children are often criticized for leaving them to take part in social or community life. Much of the criticism may be deserved. But anyone who has ever baby-tended 24 hours of the day will remember that, once in awhile at least, a young mother simply has to get away. For no matter how much she loves her little ones, the constant drain on her attentions wears the coat of patience thin. She ceases to be an individual and becomes a mechanical do-er.

Once she has been away for an hour, a half day, a day, she returns eagerly to her rightful place. The heart indeed grows fonder with absence: Have they missed me? Are they all right? Will the baby-sitter remember to close the basement door?

When she goes home, the warm welcome says in a dozen little ways, "Mother, you're important to us! We're glad you're back!"

Not long ago we sat at lunch with six or eight bright young women from all over the state, gathered for a regional conference of a worthwhile national group. Their service program is a good one, and these young women had stars in their eyes from the inspiring workshops and talks. But their conversation was mostly of the children and husband they had left at home, and they counted the hours till they could be on their way back.

Almost every young mother goes more than she should. If she does, she carries a bad conscience with her that mars the pleasure of the day off. If she's fair and honest, however, the family atmosphere is lighter and brighter for her occasional homemaking holiday.

NEWS LETTER

FROM CONGRESSMAN WALTER ROGERS
OF THE 18TH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

The 86th Congress Begins To Move

This session of Congress will be fully organized and operating much quicker than any session for a long time. There are 91 new Members. This required a tremendous amount of work in making shifts in committee assignments and getting the committees fully manned.

Many of the older Members wanted to change committees and many of the new Members had their own ideas as to the committee on which they wanted to serve. Nevertheless, the committee having charge of making committee assignments, both on the Democratic side as well as the Republican side of the aisle, moved with great speed and did a splendid job. Most of the committees have had organizational meetings and set up their subcommittees.

I was assigned to the committees on which I have served for several years. These are the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce and the Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs. I will serve on the Subcommittee on Transportation and Communications of the Interstate Committee.

This Subcommittee has jurisdiction of all interstate communications such as television, radio, telephone and telegraph.

On the Interior Committee I will be Chairman of the Subcommittee on Irrigation and Reclamation. This Subcommittee has jurisdiction of irrigation projects and all matters under the reclamation laws. It includes multi-purpose projects such as dams providing water for irrigation, water for human consumption, the generation of electrical energy, recreation, fish and wildlife, etc.

It also includes water rights compacts between the states. Jurisdiction is also exercised over the saline water program. This is a program of research to develop methods of removing the salt content of sea water or other saline water deposits, so that the water can be utilized for industrial purposes and also human consumption.

Although splendid progress has been made on this program in the past the cost features of removing the salt have not been reduced to the point where this operation is economically feasible. We do hope to make much greater headway within the next few years. Once this problem is solved, it could turn out to be one of the greatest contributions of mankind to everlasting peace.

Highlights This Far

The session so far has been highlighted by four items. First was the State of the Union Message by President Eisenhower; second was the Budget Message; third was the Economic Report of the President, and fourth was the appearance of the President of the Argentine Republic, His Excellency Arturo Frondizi. President Frondizi addressed a joint session of the Congress.

Taking up these highlights in the order named for discussion, let's begin with the President's State of the Union Message. I treated this in an earlier newsletter and will not repeat except to say that it was a message with which no one could disagree, except as to a few isolated items.

The same cannot be said of the Budget Message. It was the opening gun in the annual battle of the budget. The President had stated publicly that he expected to submit a balanced budget to the Congress. This is something that the Congress would receive with great happiness; therefore, we were looking forward to its presentation. But, alas, when it did come we found that there were some qualifications and conditions which had not been made public

West Texas State's Madrigal Singers, a group organized in 1957 to offer voice students more varied participation in concerts, will perform here in a concert Feb. 16. The group, directed by Royal Brantley, assistant professor of music, will sing a varied program including madrigals and folk songs. Members are Larry Jones, standing, left, Tom Frisbie and Frank Frisbie, all of Amarillo, and Henry Hardaway of Claude; David Whatley, seated left, of Pampa, Donnis Plunk of Amarillo, Christine McFarlin of Dumas, Betty Overall of Pampa, Marian Forbau of Quanah and Brantley.

The Man who Appreciates the Finest...

BUYS HIS WIFE GAS APPLIANCES!

Skill alone won't bag a Bighorn or cook a crepe suzette. It takes fine equipment, too! That's why the man who buys the best hunting rifle for himself, appreciates his wife's choice of a fully automatic, built-in GAS Range. More impressed with performance than fads, he agrees there's no point in paying more when you can buy the finest, for less. Only a Gas Range offers the advantages of closed door, smokeless broiling... no warm up wait... instant shut off with no heat hang-over. What's more, Gas cooks with less heat fluctuation than any other fuel! Yes, in every way, (economy included) GAS gives you more. And where the finest is truly appreciated... Gas belongs.

TELEPHONE TALK

by W. L. Leavy, Manager

Today, You're Still Paying World War II 'Emergency Taxes' on Your Telephone Bill

Next time you're checking over the charges on your monthly telephone bill, take a real close look at the second line from the top. Notice the figure indented under the word tax.

I imagine you've seen it so often you hardly even pay any attention to it any more. And yet, it deserves your very special attention because it's about the closest thing to an unfair tax you'll ever be required to pay.

10% Federal Excise Tax

Most of that amount represents federal (U.S.) excise taxes — 10c on every dollar of local and Long Distance phone service.

Doubtless few people even remember, but federal excise taxes were World War II emergency taxes designed to help raise money for defense, and to discourage use of vital telephone lines which were then needed for essential war time purposes. When they were put on the books, the Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee told Congress, "The increases on present excises, and new taxes, are temporary and will expire after the war."

Well, the war is over. But you and I are still paying the taxes.

Continuing World War II emergency taxes on an essential item like telephone service is so unbelievable it's almost funny. Except it's a little hard to laugh when you're being belted in the pocket book that hard.

Only On Telephone Service

Of the four essential household utilities — gas, water, lights, telephone — only your telephone service is subject to excise taxes.

And as if the tax itself isn't enough, there's also a hidden cost involved. You pay that, too. You see, we have to collect the tax and pass the proceeds along to Uncle Sam. This extra bookkeeping and billing adds to the expense of running the telephone business. Since we get the money to operate the business from only one source... our customers... you not only pay the tax, but the cost of collecting it as well.

If you feel as I do, that this unfair tax should be repealed, I invite you to write Senators Lyndon Johnson and Ralph Yarborough and Representative Walter Rogers and tell them so. One more reminder won't surprise them. They'll already have heard about it from me.

Don't Miss This TV Treat!

The second Bell Telephone Hour on television will feature a host of musical stars, including Duke Ellington, Ella Fitzgerald, Grant Tinker, Rise Stevens, Martha Wright and Russell Nype, with a wide variety of American Music by American Artists. You can see it Tuesday, February 10, on KGNC, Channel 4, at 7 p. m.

Texas lawmakers face the old "chicken or egg" problem as they move into the session's main issue — money.

Is it best to decide first how much the state must spend to keep its various programs going and then scrape up tax money to cover them? Or should the tax take be set first and the pie sliced up accordingly?

Thus far, both problems are being juggled at the same time. Already the mathematical acrobatics are spreading jitters among spectators — both appropriation seekers and tax worriers.

Governor's Prescription

Gov. Price Daniel is prescribing a two-pronged, $210,000,000 plan to cure state fiscal ailments.

First prong is to raise $65,000,000 to pay off the debt expected in the general revenue by the end of this fiscal year. Second prong is to raise $72,800,000 a year ($145,600,000 for the next biennium) to cover spending from the general revenue fund.

Sources for this money would include: (1) a natural gas severance tax, (2) an increase in levies on motor vehicle sales, tobacco and corporation franchises and (3) unclaimed bank deposits, insurance policies and property, which the state would take over.

Governor Daniel increased his previously recommended budget by nearly $20,000,000 to include appropriations for retiring state bonds, providing medical care for people on welfare rolls, a driver education program, and advertising for tourists and industry.

Total two-year spending from general revenue would be $330,000,000.

Smaller Pie

Compared to the governor's proposal, the Legislative Budget Board's recommendation for general revenue fund spending looks modest — only $285,000,000.

Though the Board's spending would be nearly $45,000,000 less than the governor's, it would still be some $4,600,000 higher than the 1958-59 appropriation.

Budget Board suggests slight increases for the judicial system, executive and administrative departments, hospitals and special schools, public schools and highways. Small cuts were recommended for junior colleges and higher education.

Spending from all funds for state government would total $2,357,347,479.

Seeligson Plan

Rep. Frates S. Seeligson of San Antonio has prepared an extensive plan to overhaul and beef up the state's tax collecting.

Topping the list would be a 1.5 per cent sales tax with food, feed and fertilizer exempted. It would bring an estimated $67,000,000 annually.

Another Seeligson bill would recodify present tax laws. It would do away with some regarded as obsolete (such as on clock peddlers, street cars) and others called inequitable (on chain stores, stock transfers, radio, TV, cosmetics, etc.) Same bill would eliminate certain exemptions and revise other taxes, mostly upward, on motor vehicle, tobacco and liquor sales. Net gain from the revisions would be a $11,500,000 a year gain in revenue.

Like Daniel, Seeligson recommends that the state take over unclaimed money and property.

Seeligson was vice chairman of the State Tax Study Commission that spent the between-sessions months working on tax problems.

Fair Warning

Governor Daniel and Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey both declared at their inaugural that they have sympathetic hearts for Texas taxpayers.

Governor Daniel proposed greater efficiency and economy by combining some of the 175 separate agencies and 213 special accounts operated by the state.

Ramsey promised there would be "no stringing up of the unfortunate taxpayer by the heels to shake out enough money to give everyone everything he wants."

Added Ramsey, "I refuse to admit that the success of a legislative session, or an administration, depends solely on the amount of money it can spend."

No Pay, No Work

House and Senate agreed easily on an automatic shut-off of the regular session at 6 p. m. May 12, but had more difficulty deciding where to get their salary money.

House members shied from a Senate plan to take from a surplus in the fund to aid the permanently and totally disabled. (Future campaign fodder, for sure, reasoned representatives.)

Instead, they proposed borrowing from the Insurance Department Building fund. Both houses agreed to tap the drivers license fund.

A definite adjournment resolution this early in the session is unprecedented in recent legislative history. So is a session of only 120 days, the period for which legislators can be paid. Both are regarded as reflecting disgruntlement over the defeat of the legislative pay raise amendment last fall.

Already three new pay raise proposals have been introduced: (1) to pay $50 a day for 150 days, (2) $40 a day for 120 days, $20 a day thereafter and (3) $4,200 a year.

Present scale is $25 a day for 120 days only.

Flood Begins

Dozens of new bills — and old bills dusted off — are flowing into legislative hoppers. Already introduced or ready for introduction are measures that would:

TAX GROSS RECEIPTS of manufacturers and importers of manufactured products, by Rep. Jerry Sadler of Percilla, estimated by author to raise $400,000,000 a year.

REVISE JUVENILE LAWS to allow prosecution of youths, 16 and over, for felonies, by Reps. Joe Ed Winfree, Houston, and Ben D.

CONTRACTORS' NOTICE OF TEXAS HIGHWAY CONSTRUCTION

Sealed proposals for constructing 14.786 miles of Gra., Strs., Flex. Base & Two Crs. Surf. Treat. from Deaf Smith Co. Li. to US 87 on Highway No. US 60, covered by F 174(6), in Randall, County, will be received at the Highway Department, Austin, until 9:00 A.M., February 14, 1959, and then publicly opened and read.

This is a "Public Works" Project, as defined in House Bill No. 54 of the 43rd Legislature of the State of Texas and House Bill No. 115 of the 44th Legislature of the State of Texas, and as such is subject to the provisions of said House Bills. No provisions herein are intended to be in conflict with the provisions of said Acts.

In accordance with the provisions of said House Bills, the State Highway Commission has ascertained and set forth in the proposal the wage rates, for each craft or type of workman or mechanic needed to execute the work on above named project, now prevailing in the locality in which the work is to be performed, and the Contractor shall pay not less than these wage rates as shown in the proposal for each craft or type of laborer, workman or mechanic employed on this project.

Legal holiday work shall be paid for at the regular governing rates. Plans and specifications available at the office of W. V. York, Resident Engineer, Canyon, Texas, and Texas Highway Department, Austin. Usual rights reserved.

Book Club Studies Broadway Musicals

Officers were elected and a program on major Broadway musicals of the 1958-59 season was presented in a meeting of the Woman's Book Club last Wednesday in the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum.

In charge of the program were Mrs. James P. Cornette and Mrs. Walter Graham. While Mrs. Cornette furnished comment of critics and other observers of "Music My Fair Lady," "Goldilocks" and "The Flower Drum Song," Mrs. Graham played recordings from each.

Mrs. J. W. Kleinschmidt was elected president. Other officers are Mrs. Joseph Findley, vice-president; Hattie M. Anderson, secretary; Mrs. C. A. Murray, treasurer; Mrs. Clyde W. Warwick, critic; and Mrs. Joe Gibson, federation counselor.

They will take office this spring. Mrs. L. H. Owens and Mrs. W. C. Hubbard were elected to membership.

Military Ball Slated Feb. 16

For the first time in more than five years, a "name band" will play for a dance at West Texas State College, when the Glenn Miller Orchestra plays Feb. 16 for the annual Military Ball.

Formerly restricted to members of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps cadets and their dates, the dance this year will be open to the public, according to Lt. Col. Edward L. Lindsey, professor of military science and tactics.

The semi-formal affair will be in the cafeteria, and the student union building will also be used for decorations and activities for the dance. Admission for the dance, from 8 p. m. until midnight, will be $3.00 a couple.

Under the direction of and featuring Ray McKinley, the orchestra will play in the "Glenn Miller tradition with the authentic Miller arrangements." Also featured will be the Lenny Hambro Quintet.

Mrs. Hodges Speaks At Club Meeting

Mrs. R. A. Hodges was principal speaker at last Wednesday's meeting of the Pleasantview Home Demonstration Club in the home of Mrs. H. M. Stokes.

Mrs. Hodges spoke on the relations between home demonstration clubs, the Randall County Home Demonstration Council and the Texas Home Demonstration Association. Mrs. Hodges is county THDA chairman.

In other action, reports of committees were given. Mrs. Cristler Crain read the by-laws and the club's constitution, which were tabled for discussion and a later vote. Mrs. B. L. Hufnagle reported on the club yearbook and outlined the year's work.

Mrs. Earl Burtz led recreation. After the meeting was adjourned Mrs. Hodges was surprised with a handkerchief shower on her birthday.

conduct the subscription campaign. Offices of the association are in the chapel.

When title for the cemetery passed to the association, the county donated enough money to install water wells and a pressure system to improve irrigation. Now the entire cemetery can be watered. Most of the dead trees and shrubs have been removed from the cemetery. The grass has been kept mowed and weeds have been killed.

The board of directors, Hosea Foster, George Blackwell, Johnnie McBroom and Warren-LaGrone donated a $1,000 tractor and mower to the association. The VFW erected a flag pole for the center of the cemetery and John Hunter gave a flag.

The triangle where the flag pole was installed was curbed and gutted at no cost to the association by B. B. Warren, W. A. (Bill) Wilson and E. A. Oberst Sr.

An aspect that is not seen on an inspection of the cemetery grounds is an adequate bookkeeping system installed in the association office. The management has also conducted a search for property owners and addresses.

The association asks that property owners in the cemetery donate $50 per grave space to the fund. In addition, those who have more spaces than they will need are asked to deed them back to the association for resale. New sales of spaces include a portion for the perpetual care fund.

To date, better than $30,000 has been received in donations, and the management is still busy trying to contact all owners and families.

The perpetual fund system is administered through the trust officer of an Amarillo bank. The principal is invested, and the income is to keep the cemetery.

Future plans for the cemetery include further beautification by landscaping with shrubs and grass on the sides, better spacing of shrubbery and trees in the interior, removal of the water towers and relocation of the tool shed, replanting of the area where the towers and shed are located, and a general improvement of landscaping all over the grounds.

The transformation of Dreamland Cemetery from what it was to its present shape is a real Cinderella story.

Courtesies Honor Mrs. Eddie Slay

A series of bridal courtesies last month honored Charlotte Crain, who recently became Mrs. Eddie Slay in a ceremony at Wellington.

At a miscellaneous shower in the home of Mrs. Victor Hill, a centerpiece of wedding bells holding miniature gifts and small pink flowers was used on a white cloth. Serving were Mrs. Boone McClure, Mrs. Hosea Foster and Mrs. Robert P. Jarrett Jr.

At the bride's book were Dorothy Jane Crain, Mrs. John Richard Passero, and Virginia Leake. Hostesses were Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Bob Anderson, Mrs. J. D. Barker, Mrs. L. L. Byars, Mrs. L. S. Johnston, Mrs. Iverson Leake, Mrs. Floyd Moore, Mrs. H. G. Persons, Mrs. Floyd Tomlinson, Mrs. J. B. Roberts, Mrs. R. R. Rhoades and Mrs. J. J. Walker.

A tea was given in Mrs. Slay's honor in the home of Mrs. Hosea Foster. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Joe Black, Mrs. Herschel Coffee, Mrs. Ross Craig, Mrs. J. A. Edwards, Mrs. Walter Graham, Mrs. A. B. Holt, Mrs. Crews Henry, Mrs. James Jennings, Mrs. Boone McClure, Mrs. A. H. Prichard, Mrs. C. F. Rogers and Mrs. E. H. Wright. Mrs. Duane Howard, Ann Jarrett and Wanda Rogers registered the approximate 125 guests who called. At the serving table were Mrs. Floyd Tomlinson, Mrs. Floyd Moore and Mrs. Iverson Leake. A centerpiece of pink baby feathered mums in three white vases connected by streamers was used on the light pink satin cloth.

A personal shower was given in her honor in the Iverson Leake home. Hostesses were Virginia Leake, Mrs. Larry Griffin, Vanda Latham, Mrs. John Richard Passero, Mrs. Foster Parker, Mrs. Don Singleton and Mrs. Bob Wilkinson. A dinner in the R. P. Jarrett

Florence Coffee Is Club Speaker

Florence Coffee addressed members of the Junior Woman's Book Club as they met last Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. H. R. Fulton.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Coffee, Miss Coffee spoke on Australia, where she spent the last year as a Rotary Foundation Fellow studying at the University of Sydney.

Miss Coffee was introduced by Mrs. Clarence Thompson.

Mrs. Arent Lair sang "The Lass With A Delicate Air" and "Calm is the Night." She was accompanied by Mrs. Ellsworth Barnard.

A brief business meeting was held, with Mrs. Bob Lindsey presiding. A short social period preceded the meeting.

MRS. JOHN RICHARD PASSERO

Nelda Coffee, John R. Passero
Married in Amarillo Cathedral

In a double ring ceremony at the Sacred Heart Cathedral in Amarillo, Nelda Jean Coffee became the bride of John Richard Passero of El Paso at 7 p. m. Saturday.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. James Herschel Coffee, 2407 Eighth Avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Passero of El Paso.

The Rev. James Comiskey, pastor of St. Ann's Catholic Church of Canyon, read the vows before arrangements of large white chrysanthemums and white pom-pom mums, which were used on the central altar. At the ends of the main altar were large spiral candelabra holding milk glass votive lights and large floor standards filled with white gladioli, white chrysanthemums and pom-pom mums.

The side altars held matching arrangements of white chrysanthemums and pom-pom mums, and were flanked by pyramid arrangements of cathedral candelabra. Immediately flanking the wedding party were large baskets of white gladioli, chrysanthemums and pom-pom mums to complete the floral background. The bridal aisle was marked alternately with arrangements of white mums and tall three-branch aisle candelabra.

Nancy Ross of Amarillo, organist, played wedding processional and recessional by Sellner. Gary Valentine of San Antonio sang "Ave Maria" by Schubert and "On This Day, Oh Beautiful Mother." Bridesmaids were Nancy Pennies of El Paso, cousin of the bridegroom; Vanda Lou Latham of Canyon; Sydney Slack of Perryton, cousin of the bride; and Sally Jennings of Canyon, cousin of the bride. Florence Coffee, sister of the bride, was maid of honor.

They wore identical silk taffeta dresses of opera green styled with scooped necklines and crushed cummerbund waists and fashioned in full Haren skirts. Their matching hats were of tulle and taffeta. The attendants carried bouquets of pearls repeated the long flowing lines of the cascade arrangement.

Mrs. Coffee was attired in a French blue sheath gown of lace. The deep cut neckline was trimmed with wide gathered bands of chiffon, which fell in folds to a belted waist in the back. Her accessories were of matching blue, and her corsage was of pink cymbidium orchids.

A reception in the bride's home, 2407 Eighth Avenue, followed the ceremony. The bridal table was laid with a floor length white silk cloth and centered with a floral arrangement of butterfly roses and candles.

For the wedding trip to Colorado Springs, the bride chose an avocado green and gold raw silk suit with blending accessories. She wore a flowered hat and her corsage was a white orchid.

After Feb. 10, the couple will live in El Paso.

A graduate of Canyon High School, the bride attended West Texas State College, where she was a member of the Delta Zeta Chi sorority. At the time of her marriage she was a student at the University of Texas, where she was studying interior decoration and fashion design.

The groom was graduated from Austin High School of El Paso. He attended the University of Texas for three years, and was a member of Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity. He studied architectural engineering. He is now employed with the A. S. Passero Construction Co. of El Paso, and will continue his studies at Texas Western.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Travali, Mrs. Ann Pennies, Nancy and Minnie, Mrs. John E. Betticks, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Girdland, all of El Paso; Elizabeth Bailey of Arlington; Thetis Faust of Morton; Kay Kinney of Dallas; Linda Bailey of El Paso; Sally Gandy of Houston; Buddy Nelson of Elgin; Ronnie Moore of Dallas. Mrs. M. L. Weir, Jimmie Ruth and Evelyn of Childress; Mrs. Orville K. Smith and Pat Smith of Childress; Mrs. Joe Pennies and Mildred of El Paso; Mr. and Mrs. Louie Bonds and family of Happy; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Slack and family of Archer City; and Mr. and Mrs. Don Waldrip of Olton.

A rehearsal dinner was given by the bridegroom's parents Friday evening at Vol's Restaurant in Amarillo.

Two Art Students
Get Scholarships

Scholarships valued at $100 each have been presented to two West Texas State College art students to be granted from a fund donated by the Connoisseur Society of Amarillo.

The winners are Jimmy MacDarden and Don Duncan who will be granted the award for the spring semester.

Darden is a senior art student from Kress, and Duncan is a junior education major from Canyon.

The awards were announced by Dr. Emilio Caballero, head of the WT art department.

The Connoisseur Society in January presented the WT art department with a gift of almost $1,400 with which to make scholarship awards. The money was an accumulation of dues and gifts made to the society since its organization in 1945. Darden is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Darden of Kress. He transferred to WT in 1957 from Cisco Junior College. Duncan is the son of Mrs. Edna Duncan of Gruver.

Scheduled for the BIT

'The Innocents'

THE STAGE VERSION of that terrible little tale by Henry James, "The Turn of the Screw," will be presented Thursday, Friday and Saturday in the Branding Iron Theatre at West Texas State College.

William Archibald's play, "The Innocents," which premiered in 1950 on Broadway, will be directed by William A. Moore, with stage and technical assistance from Robert L. Antrim. Curtain time each night will be at 8:15 p. m., and admission is 75 cents for adults and 25 cents for children.

STORY OF THE PLAY begins when a young governess arrives at an English estate to assume charge of two precocious, orphaned youngsters. A motherly cook completes the household, but the four are not alone.

Deflation Prices so everyone can attend a movie once a week Varsity every Tuesday, 15c to all.

They are haunted by fears and phantoms, and while the cook and governess are terrified, the boy and girl welcome the spirits and are "possessed" by them. The governess slowly learns that the evil spirits are those of the former caretaker and maid, who have corrupted the souls of the innocents.

THE THREE-ACT DRAMA will star Janelle Mundy of Canyon and David O'Keefe of Amarillo as Flora and Miles. Ann Smith of Dimmitt will portray the governess, Miss Giddens, and Janis Dunnam of Lefors will be Mrs. Grose, the cook.

The spirits will be James Hinkley of Pampa, as Peter Quint and Kay Brown of Stinnett as Miss Jessel, the former maid. Miss Brown and Merle Dean Campbell of Hartley are the student directors for the production.

Charlotte Crain, Eddie Slay Wed In Double Ring Ceremony Jan. 23

A double ring ceremony in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Y. Bell in Wellington united their granddaughter, Charlotte Crain, and Eddie Slay at 7 p. m. Jan. 23.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Newton Crain, 804 Fourth Avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Slay of Wellington.

The Rev. Russell Pogue, a Baptist minister in Wellington, performed the ceremony before an arch of white wrought iron candelabra holding white tapers and tied with white satin bows. A sunburst arrangement of white gladioli in a pedestal stand centered the archway, and arrangements of palm foliage were used on either side.

Virginia Leake of Canyon played "pre-nuptial selections that included "Poloise" and "Prelude," both by Chopin, "To a Rising Sun" by Torjusen; "Poem" by Fibich; "To a Wild Rose" by McDowell and "Galolette" by Bach.

Mrs. Bell, the bride's grandmother, played the processional and recessional.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a winter white flannel dress, made with a batteau neckline, cap sleeves, bloused bodice and street-length straight skirt. Her half-hat of satin petals was accented with tiny designs of seed pearls, and her corsage was of white roses. A necklace, a gift from the bridegroom, was her only jewelry.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Crain chose a mauve brocade crepe dress with brown accessories while Mrs. Slay wore navy silk, accented with iridescent necklace. Both had corsages of pink carnations.

A reception followed the ceremony.

Covering the bride's table was a cloth of white satin with a shell pink overskirt. The floor length flounce was accented by miniature pink bows at the top edge. A silver bowl of white roses and four candles centered the table.

Serving the wedding cake were Mrs. Archie Copeland of Lubbock, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. D. S. Knox, sister of the bridegroom. Mrs. Jimmy Copeland of Lubbock and Mrs. James T. Slay of Amarillo poured.

Dorothy Jane Crain of Canyon, sister of the bride, registered the guests. Others in the house party were Mrs. Iverson Leake of Canyon and Mrs. Margie Emory of Groom.

For a short wedding trip, the bride chose a black tweed suit with a feather hat and other accessories in a forest hue. Her corsage was of roses.

A 1956 graduate of Canyon High School, the bride will receive her degree in elementary education from West Texas State College this June.

The bridegroom is a 1955 graduate of Wellington High School and is a senior at WT, where he is studying business management.

The couple will live here at 104 21st St.

Deflation Prices so everyone can attend a movie once a week Varsity every Tuesday, 15c to all.
